ActionSportGames proudly presents the first Sportline model from Classic Army - The M15A4 Carbine.

ActionSportGames A/S is excited to introduce the first model in the Classic Army Sportline Series - The M15A4 Carbine. With this model we offer you a well know quality at an incredible price. What you get is a product that will satisfy most consumers from the addicted gamer to the rookie who wants to have a go now without buying the ProLine models (the current metal casting models).

The Sales Manager at ActionSportGames A/S, Martin Stelling, expresses his enthusiasm about this product "Classic Army has become one of the most successful manufacturers in the Airsoft business, therefore we are absolutely thrilled that we can now offer a brand at a superb price. The Sportsline Series will have the same after sales service as the ProLine - we can supply all spare parts. We want to make sure that the retailers in Europe get our wellknown support all the way."
